INT. HOSPITAL BED - DAY

TINA a teenage girl is in a hospital bed with an ECG above.

Her heart beat is slow and steady.

A teenage boy is leaning on his arm which is resting on the bed.

Two vases of dead flowers are on the side cabinet.

There are lots of GET WELL SOON cards on the side.

The teenage boy (BOYFRIEND) is crying and looks very upset.

He drops a bunch of flowers onto the floor.

A doctor enters the room and walks to the end of the bed and starts talking to him. He shakes his head and points to the clipboard where various graphs show no signs of change over months.

Tina's face is still and motionless.

INT. THEATRE - DAY

Tina is dancing spinning around and around.

She does an impressive dance move and dramatically falls to the ground.

INT. BEDROOM - DAY

Tina is getting ready to go dancing.

Her shelf is full of little dance trophies and her walls are covered with dance certificates.

INT. HOSPITAL BED - DAY

Boyfriend is staring at Tina and grips the sheet and slowly shakes his head

EXT. CORRIDOR - NIGHT

Tina dressed in her hospital nightgown is dragging herself across the floor with her arms. She heads towards a bright light at the end of the corridor.

INT. THEATRE - DAY

Tina pulls herself up from the floor up the stairs to the stage.

Her legs are motionless and not helping her.

She stands straight using her arms to balance and looks out from the stage into the empty theatre.

Her face is angry, then sad as we enter her eyes her life passes before her, dancing, laughing, boyfriend, smiling, her lips, his lips, spinning, walking in the sunshine, driving in the car then she falls to the ground.

Tina is lying on her back alone in the theatre.

INT. HOSPITAL BED - DAY

The boyfriend walks over to Tina and strokes her hair.

He then kisses her forehead and leaves the room.
